

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

once again I want to cordially invite you to the event "Remembering. Commemorating. Reminding.- An open exchange in remembrance of Marwa El-Sherbini and Jorge Gomondai" on Friday the 13th of December 2019 between 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. at the Weltclub (Königsbrücker Straße 13).

The racially motivated murders of Jorge Gomondai (1991) and Marwa El-Sherbini (2009) are annually remembered in different ways by people in Dresden. Expectations towards the commemoration of the events may differ depending on personal perspectives.

Therefore, within the framework of the event, people are given the opportunity to exchange their opinions on said commemoration. Views and perspectives offered in this regard will be heard and taken into account for the future development of such memorial days.

Participants will be guided through the event by the moderator of color ShaNon Bobinger from Berlin. Working from a perspective highly critical of racism and discrimination, she will focus on an interactive dialogue sensitive to diversity.

Furthermore we are looking forward to a statement by sociologist Hannah Zimmermann. Working for the Project "Offener Prozess", she is concerned with the remembrance of the victims of the NSU in Saxony. Based on her important work, she will outline her experiences with the handling of culture of memory and commemorative work.

Please find attached the schedule of the event.

We are looking forward to your participation. For organizational reasons we would ask you to register under rehor@auslaenderrat.de.

In case you need a translation during the event, please mention that when you register. We will then try our best to provide language mediation.

Sincerely
